When God and Cancer Meet True Stories of Hope and Healing by Lynn Eib

Cancer survivor Lynn Eib knows from experience that God can touch you. Right where you are, whoever you are: Newly diagnosed and in shock, praying there's been some mistake. Facing surgery, hoping the doctor can get it all. Holding the hand of a love one, trying to be strong. Trudging through chemotherapy and radiation, hoping they work. Undergoing tests, longing for good news.

When God and Cancer Meet is a book of powerful stories about cancer patients and their families who have been touched by God in miraculous ways.

"I've seen in my own life and in theirs (other people's lives) that nothing, including conquering cancer, is impossible with God. I've seen how God has taken the worst tragedy of my life and turned it into my greatest triumph...My goal each workday is to love people affected by cancer and move them closer to God, Who truly can meet all their needs. I would never dream of suggesting that God is going to work in your life exactly as He did in mine or in any of the lives of other people in this book. He is far too big to be boxed in like that. But He will work in your life – in His perfect way and time."

~ Lynn Eib

GIFTS TO: THE HEALING MINISTRY at ALL SAINTS CHURCH, Winter Park

Funding of The Healing Ministry at All Saints Church, Winter Park, is independent from the parish budget of All Saints Church. The Healing Ministry relies primarily upon contributions made at the Tuesday evening Healing Services and by donations made during visits to The Glennon House. The operating costs of The Glennon House, its staff, prayer ministry, healing missions and some specially acquired guest teachers, are derived from those generous donations and contributions.

The Healing Ministry is an ecumenical expression of the healing gifts of Jesus Christ and welcomes the involvement of believers of every Christian denomination.

Healing Thoughts - Express Yourself – Kirsten Aufhammer

As I lay by the pool enjoying the Florida sun I listened to the squeaky giggles of a tiny child. The laughter floated on the breeze circling each of us lying by the pool and embraced us in a joyful hug. All of us looked over at the tiny little girl, smiles turning up the corners of our mouths. I closed my eyes, snuggling back into my sun induced snooze.

I jerked awake as the angry cries belched forth from tiny lungs. The same child was now royally perturbed at her mother for daring to lower her tiny feet into the cold pool water. Her little legs churned pell-mell in the air in an attempt to avoid the water. She was not happy! Her cries let anyone in the vicinity know of her anger. Her mother pulled her close, snuggling her tiny daughter to her chest. The child was rocked in her mother's arms; mother and child rocked to the age old rhythm of nurturing comfort. The child's downy locks were showered with gentle kisses and nuzzles. Angry cries were reduced to hiccups. A mother's love chased away the frustration of not being in control of where the young girl's own feet were placed.

What freedom the tiny girl had – freedom to express herself. What you see is what you get. Or rather, what you hear is what you get! One of the many gifts of childhood is the ability to express exactly how you are feeling. When a child is happy, they laugh. When they are sad, they cry. When they are mad, they bellow.

When is the last time you openly expressed yourself?

As we grow older, we lose the freedom of true expression. We begin to curtail our reactions so that we don't offend, hurt, or disappoint others. The problem with this is that we lose a part of ourselves in the process. God created us to be communicators. In the Garden, Adam and Eve spent their evenings walking and talking with God, a chorus of communication. They held nothing back from the Lord – complete freedom of expression. When Adam and Eve were together they naturally communicated with each other; an extension of their communicative relationship with the Lord. We were created for communication and relationships.

Jesus tells His followers to be "like little children." Children express themselves (with and without words) openly to their parents. In one of Beth Moore's Bible Studies she confesses that she is a "Tattle Tale." When someone hurts her she runs to Jesus and tattles on that person. She openly expresses exactly how she is feeling right at that moment. When someone makes her mad she runs to Jesus and tattles. And when someone makes her feel loved...you guessed it she runs to Jesus and tattles on that person.

Jesus knows the feelings that we hide in our hearts. He wants to be the One to Whom we express our feelings. He is the safe haven from the storm of our emotions. Be a "Tattle Tale," Jesus can handle it! If the Doctor gives you a diagnosis that scares you. Run to Jesus to tell Him you're scared! If you are angry that your prayers don't seem to be answered for a loved one. Run to Jesus to tell Him that you are angry! If your heart has been broken once again. Run to Jesus to tell Him that you're hurt and you can't take any more pain.

Jesus can handle any emotion you are feeling. Let Jesus chase away the fear, anger, and heartbreak. He wants you to tell Him how you are feeling. He created you to be in constant communication with Him.

Don't hold it in. Come to Jesus like a little child.

Express yourself!

THE PRAYER REQUESTS YOU GIVE TO US:

Prayer requests are placed in a special basket at The Glennon House for one month. These requests are prayed for, individually, each day by prayer volunteers. Every week at the Tuesday evening healing service, those hospitalized or in "imminent need" are prayed for by the clergy and all other names, currently in the Prayer Basket, are prayed for aloud by the congregation.

We use only the first names of those we are praying for, in order to respect their privacy. To have a need placed in the basket, call (407) 647-8925 or drop by.

Prayer Ministers:

Fr. Al Durrance, Pastor
Steve Horrell, Dcn. Carolyn Petersen, Dcn. Liz Tucker, Dr. Barbara Keene, Don Jaeger, Doris Matthews, Dick Mead, Kirsten Aufhammer, and others.

Youth Ministry

Many parents who attend the Healing Ministry have requested youth care for their older children during the Tuesday Night Service. Well, ask and you shall receive! We heard your requests and we now offer a Youth Healing Ministry opportunity for children ages 6-15 years old in the Thomas Center. (We still have child care for children 5 and under in Rm. 103.) Charles and Lisa Clayton lead this group that offers: lessons on healing, crafts, prayer time for self and others, study time, and free pizza dinner. So bring your children for a fun filled evening, while you attend the Healing Service.

Caregiver's Workshop

Join us on the second Thursday of the month from 11:30 – 1:00 pm for the Caregiver's Workshop. The Healing Ministry's mission is to aid and empower all people to receive 'healing' and 'wholeness' from Jesus. This includes those who minister as well as those who receive care. This month, the caregiver group will continue to focus on those who provide care. Caregivers are prayed for as they choose to "pick up their mat" (like the man at the pool called Bethesda) stepping toward healing for themselves and their needs through discussion and prayer time. These workshops are to encourage, comfort and reenergize caregivers. Dr. Barbara Keene and Don & Sarah Jaeger will be the leaders for this workshop. Click here for more details.

Extended Prayer Appointments

For those who desire an extended time of individual prayer with a Prayer Minister, please call The Glennon House at (407) 647-8925. Appointments with Prayer Ministers provide ample time for you to sift your heart and communicate your need for prayer.

The Glennon House has specially trained prayer ministers who are willing to arrange their schedules to accommodate your needs. Simply call us and we will find a prayer minister who will minister to your specific needs either in The Glennon House or by telephone. Back to top
